SUBURBAN PROPERTY SELLS

Signs of Spring Shown in Business of Period-Southern Building Leading Exchange.

Quality rather than quantity distinguished the operations of the real estate market during the third week of March.

The transfer of the Southern building at Fifteenth and H streets northwest, at a valuation of $1.500,000; the sale of an apartment at $145,000; the purchase of a site for an apartment which, when completed, will represent an investment of $130,000; the acquisition of a business building at $94,000, and of a half in-terest in another building within the business district at $45,000, and the sale of other apartments at prices exceedof other apartments at prices exceeding $50,000, were some of the features of the trading of the past six days.

In the number of transactions closed the past week shows a decided decline from the record-breaking activity of the preceding six days.

from the record-breaking activity of the preceding six days.

The brokers made only 108 deals, in which were involved 222 lots and parcels of real estate. Yesterday was the only active day of the week, having twenty-seven sales to its credit. Thursday ranked second, with twenty trades, followed closely by Wednesday's record of nineteen deals. There were seventeen sales completed on Tuesday, fourteen on Monday, and cleven on the half-holiday of Saturday.

Sign of Spring.

The arrival of spring is always heralded by increased selling of suburban property, and the past week was no exception. More than half the week's business was in the outlying suburbs, where 117 parcels changed owners. The where 117 parcels changed owners. The northwest was second, with forty lots to its credit. The near-urban district ranked third, with twenty-nine lots conveyed, followed closely by the north-east, where twenty-seven lots were transferred. There were seven lots sold in the southeast and two in the southwest.

Teh Southern Realty Corporation of Delawars conveyed the Southern building to the First National Fire Insurance Company at a valuation of $1,000,000. The equity involved was estimated at

The next largest transaction of the week involved $145,000, at which price the Roydon apartment at 1619 R street the Roydon apartment at 1619 R street northwest was sold by Harry Wardman and Thomas Bones to S. Louise Doubleday. Messrs. Wardman and Bones also figured in another large deal. They acquired from James O'Donnell, the druggist, the triangular square of ground bounded by Sixteenth and V streets and New Hampshire avenue. The land cost $30,000, and the new purchasers secured a building the new purchasers secured a building loan of $100,000 from the Washington Loan and Trust Company. A handsome and Trust Company. The Bloomfield at 345 Mt. Pleasant street, and the Kelwood at 1819 and 182 Corcoran street also changed owners during the week. The former was bought by Jane G. Pennington at a price indicated at $62,000. Clarence A. Marshall sold the latter to Wardman and Bones for about $21,000.

Loans Near Million.

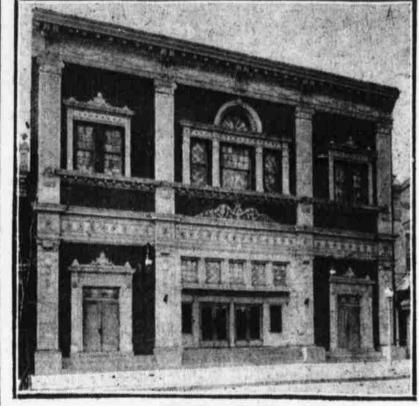

The loan market made the best showing of the new year, and approached closely the million-dollar mark. The exact figures in the loans of the past six days were $983,834.95. This sum was six days were $983,834.95. This sum was borrowed on the security of 196 lots at an average interest rate of 5.8 per cent. Straight loans predominated with an aggregate of $723,105. The sum of all the notes given for deferred purchase money was $156,129.37. The building associations advanced to members $194,600. County property easily won supremacy in the race for favor as a basis of loan security being pledged for a total of $544,463.87. Land in the northwest was encumbered to the extent of $290,750. The record of loans in the other city sections was: Northeast, $28,571.98; southeast, $17,750, and southwest, $2,350.
